

Goal Setting: the key to performance

Overview:

Goal setting enables an individual and an organization to set goals and check the progress of their short-term and long-term objectives. The purpose of the goal-setting process is to motivate and improve the productivity of yourself, and your organization. It provides you with direction to know where you are going, how you will get there.

Learn:

Through this training, you will learn how to link organizational and individual goals to achieve results and ensure overall success. You will see how the goal-setting process can benefit you and your organization and what criteria to use to set up goals for yourself, your employees and your organization. This seminar will enable you to incorporate the goal-setting process into your management style to create a positive, enriched work climate with employees who are motivated and perform above the norm. Lastly, you will be able to construct and design goals that are suitable to your needs as well as to the needs of your organization.
